District Attorney News Release

District Attorney Paul Gallegos announced today the filing of a criminal complaint against Kerri Malloy.

An investigation by the Arcata Police Department followed when bank employees noted irregularities in Arcata Chamber of Commerce checks deposited in the account for his business, Steve's Coney Island.

The complaint charges four misdemeanor counts, forgery and theft by embezzlement as to each of the two checks, $5,000 and $3,000 respectively. Malloy has already made restitution to the Chamber.

Malloy, 34, of Eureka, had recently been appointed Interim Executive Director of the Chamber. He faces up to two years in jail if convicted.

He will be scheduled for arraignment on August 22, 2008 in Humboldt Superior Court.
