EZRA KEITH WILLIAMS

On October 20, 2010, Ezra Keith Williams pled guilty to two counts of robbery. The robberies occurred on March 25, 2010, at Radio Shack in Myrtle town, and on April 6, 2010, at Bank of America, in Henderson Center.

He also pled to transportation of heroin. He received the sentence of 7 years and 4 months for the three convictions. He will be required to serve 85% of that sentence before release. He was ordered to pay restitution to the two businesses he robbed.

The Eureka Police Department investigated the cases.
