

Part 3 – Resource Management

---

This part of the General Plan focuses on the natural environment and how land use activities interact with it. Included in this part are the Conservation and Open Space elements, which are required pursuant to California planning law. It also includes the optional Water Resources, Energy, and Air Quality elements.